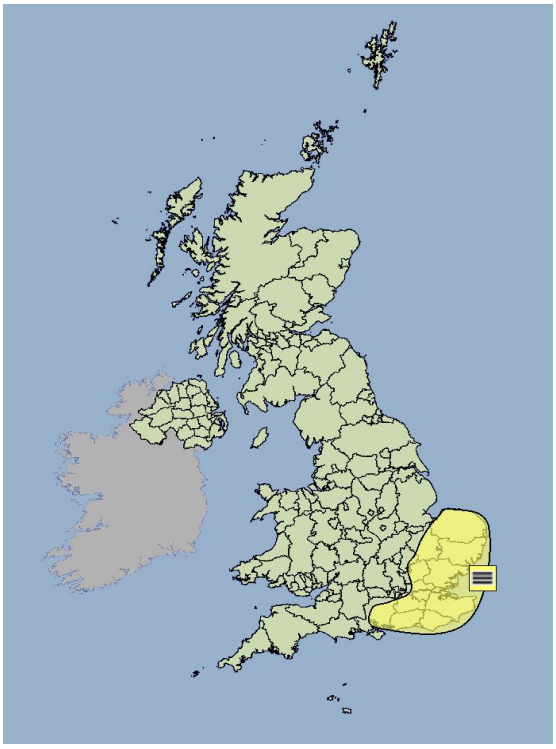
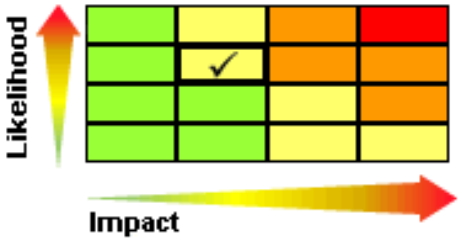
National Severe Weather Warning Service





Chief Forecasters Assessment
Under clearing skies, patchy fog is expected to develop during Saturday evening, initially in rural areas, but becoming more extensive across southeastern parts of England overnight with the visibility falling to as low as 50 metres in places.

The Met Office have issued a Yellow Warning of Fog

Valid from 21:00 on Sat, 29th Oct 2016 until 10:00 on Sun, 30th Oct 2016

Patches of fog are likely to form readily in rural parts of east and southeast England during Saturday evening, becoming more widespread and locally dense overnight and at first on Sunday morning.

Please be aware that low visibility could lead to difficult driving conditions in places.
